

Event Intro for Jeff Evans

Jeff Evans has been traveling the globe for close to 20 years now, seeking out the most unique challenges in the world of adventure. Whether guiding international executives up mountains around the world, competing in an Eco Challenge or guiding a blind man to the summit of Mt Everest, Jeff has tackled many objectives that on first glimpse seemed quite unlikely to be successful.

Jeff is the published author of MountainVision: Lessons Beyond the Summit, the owner/operator of MountainVision Expeditions as well as a practicing Emergency Medicine Physician Assistant. He appears as one of the main characters in two different award winning documentaries Farther Than the Eye Can See and Blindsight.

Although he was raised in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia and North Carolina he currently resides at the foot of the Rocky Mountains in Boulder, Colorado.
